The Bay Buds (Jan Holland, Jean Shearer, Cindy Warren, Laurel Ritchie, Paula Banks, Monique Antoine-Hartley, Cathy Rogerson, Lois Kennedy and Nancy Eamon) have participated in the Lombardy Relay for Life (a project of the Canadian Cancer Society) for the past 11 years and have raised $40,000.00!!! This certainly could not have been attained if not for the support of the community, friends and family. This group of women, which has ranged from 7 to 12 members throughout the years, raises the money through pledges to sponsor their walk, the Frost Fest Pie Contest and Committee and by selling tickets on beautiful gift baskets. Gift basket tickets are being sold presently on a Canada Day theme (value $160.00) at various locations and at the park on Canada Day where the winning ticket will be drawn. The members wish to thank all who have given so generously to this cancer fundraising event.

The Benefits of Buying Local – When you look at the lovely image of the hamlet of Seeley's Bay in the photo above, it doesn't take long to see that at the heart of the community – indeed, what keeps it ticking and vibrant - is our local businesses and services. Just imagine if we didn't have Sweet's Freshmart, a post office, our marinas, an LCBO, the Nest Egg, etc. Many of us are all too eager to get savings by going to big box stores elsewhere, but please think twice before you do that; sometimes there are good reasons for buying the item closer to home. It might save you gas money, and it just might help keep our local businesses, and the jobs they provide, viable. "Revitalizing community economies by investing in local products and businesses is the first step towards residents taking more control of their own future". One interesting initiative is the '10 percent shift' campaign which acknowledges it doesn't make sense to buy everything local, but a conscious effort to shift some of your buying can add up to a big difference across a community. <http://www.tenpercentshift.ca/>
